Laurel Fritz joins the staff of the Endowment Fund Investment Board

(BOISE) – Idaho Endowment Fund Investment Board (EFIB) Chairman Dean Buffington announced today the hiring of Laurel B. Fritz, CPA, to the position of Fiscal Officer on the staff of the EFIB.

As Fiscal Officer, Ms. Fritz has overall responsibility for the financial operations of the agency. She most recently worked for Eide Bailly in the company's tax and audit functions. Before that she worked as an information systems engineer at Boise Cascade. She earlier served in State government as a legislative auditor.

A native Idahoan, Ms. Fritz has a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Idaho and a B.A. in Computer Information Systems from Boise State University.

The EFIB is an agency of the State of Idaho, headquartered in Boise, responsible for prudent management of approximately $2 billion of investments consisting of State land grant endowment funds, the financial assets of the State Insurance Fund, the assets of the Judges' Retirement Fund, and the assets of certain State park endowments. The Board consists of nine members appointed by the Governor and subject to Senate confirmation.
