STATE OF IDAHO            )
  : ss.
County of Ada                )

Laurie McNamara, being first duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says as follows to-wit:

1. I am a member of Wagon Wheel Bay Dock Association, Inc. (“WWBDA”), Intervenor-Respondents in this matter.

2. I have requested “interested party” status in this matter.

3. I am familiar with the facts at issue in this action, and I make this Affidavit based upon my own personal knowledge.

4. My husband, Jim, and I own a cottage site situated within the boundaries of PLCSOA. We placed the winning bid at auction for the cottage site, which was previously owned and leased by the State of Idaho, on or about November 13, 2015. This cottage site includes the right of access to the roads and several lakeside common areas located within the boundaries of PLCSOA. These roads and common areas are owned and managed by PLCSOA for the benefit of its members and prior deeded owners.

5. We purchased our cottage site in reliance of the fact that PLCSOA owned the roads and common areas, to which we would have access.

6. As a second-tier cottage site owner (i.e. not lake front), this access to the lake is an incredibly valuable part of our property, and the primary reason that we purchased the property. A similar lot located elsewhere in McCall, without lake access, is much less valuable and we would not have been willing to pay as much for our cottage site without this access. On the other hand, we could not afford to buy a lakefront property with its own lake access.

7. As members of WWBDA, my husband and I have expended many thousands of dollars on the dock itself, as well as to pay attorney fees to defend against efforts by SGNA or its members to thwart WWBDA's efforts to install or maintain its dock.

FURTHER, YOUR AFFIANT SAITH NAUGHT.

DATED this 12 day of April, 2019.
