Local high school choir to sing for Land Board

(BOISE) – The Capital High School choir, Capital Singers, will serenade the Idaho State Board of Land Commissioners (Land Board) with Christmas songs in the Capitol, 2nd Floor Rotunda on Tuesday, December 18, at 8:30 am.

The Land Board will present a large, symbolic check to the choir, recognizing the endowment lands and fund distribution of $50,325,600.00 for Fiscal Year 2019.

The regularly scheduled Land Board meeting will begin at 9 a.m. in the Lincoln Auditorium in the Capitol.

The Land Board is comprised of the Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, Controller, and Superintendent of Public Schools.

Note to editors: Attached is a document that shows beneficiary distributions.

This event will make a great kicker for news casts. The choir is fantastic and the rotunda is beautifully decorated.
